

Burglars Again Ransack Watertown Ave. Tailor Shop

Coats, Suits And Dresses Are Taken, Appraised At $100

Establishment Broken Into Early This Morning—Rear Window Enables Callers to Enter—Detective Bureau Investigating

Burglars who have developed a frequent calling acquaintance with Thomas DeMuna, Watertown avenue tailor, have demonstrated that they believe in being generous when they helped themselves.

Mr. DeMuna's place was found broken into early this morning. A check-up made during the day indicated that 2 topcoats, 3 overcoats, a lady's dress, 2 suits and a pair of trousers had been taken.

The first estimate of the value is set between $75 and $100, but of course Mr. DeMuna's opinion is only one man's appraisal. He has yet to hear from his patrons or to be acquainted with the fact that there is some sentimental value placed on "missing garments."

Some months ago burglars backed up a truck to Mr. DeMuna's place of business and almost emptied the shop.

To-day they made a profitable call and succeeded in making a getaway. The "break" was discovered by Patrolman Thomas Meehan and reported to the detective bureau for investigation.

A window in the rear of the establishment was broken.

Some of the patrons have yet to learn that their topcoat or overcoat has disappeared. It isn't the loss which counts so much, it's the explanation to a patron that burglars play no favorites in picking goods to be carried away.

Patrolman Meehan, who is in charge of the investigation, believes they had discovered the site of three primitive Indian villages.

Their recent excavations, resulting in disinterment of a skull and skeletons of two braves, promise to attract expert archeologists, and to the redman's life in this part of the country.

The skeletons and skull were found at the bottom of a mound situated high on the promontory, overlooking the Millcreek valley near Sharnville. The mound rose about eight feet above the general level of the promontory.

It was believed the skeletons were those of men of a primitive race which preferred the spear to the bow and arrow, since several flints were found, measuring from six to eight inches in length. They had been pressed to a sharp edge, rather than round.

The discovery was made as Anderson and Reichert were leveling off the property.

BONES REVEAL VILLAGE SITE

Cincinnati, O.—(UP)—Clarence Anderson and Franklin Reichert, residents of Sharnville, near here, believe they had discovered the site of three primitive Indian villages.

Albert Given Nolle On Homicide Charges

Insufficient Evidence to Prosecute—Justin Casey Freed on Theft Count

On recommendation of State's Attorney Lawrence L. Lewis the automobile homicide charges against Jacob Albert, 45, of this city, were nolle by Judge Newell Jennings in superior court today.

Mr. Lewis informed the court he had carefully studied the evidence and was convinced that there was not sufficient cause to prosecute the accused on grounds of criminal negligence.

Albert was charged with having struck Mrs. Margaret Briggs on East Main street and to have caused her injuries which resulted in her death.

Mr. Lewis said he believed the man had been punished enough, in that he had been made defendant in a civil action which resulted in a judgment of a substantial sum being returned against him.

He had no insurance on his car and has been struggling to pay the judgment, Mr. Lewis said.

Because Justin Casey, 22, of this city had no previous criminal record, Judge Jennings said he wanted to give him another chance, so he imposed a Chelsea reformatory sentence, with execution of it suspended. Casey pleaded guilty to charges of theft.

Attorney Edward J. Sweeney made a fine plea for leniency for the boy, pointing out it was a $15 watch that the boy was accused of stealing. He said the boy was in his car and intended to turn it over to the man to whom it belonged when the man got out of the hospital to where Casey has been taken in his car.

The young man appeared noticeably affected as he faced the bench.

GILMOUR WILL IN PROBATE COURT

Provisions Made for Annual Allowance to Widow

The establishment of a trust fund from which his widow, Mrs. Margaret L. Gilmour is to receive an annual allowance of $1,000 is provided in the will of the late John Gilmour, admitted to probate court by Judge Dennis J. Slavin. On the death of Mrs. Gilmour the fund is to be dissolved and the estate divided into equal shares for sons and daughters.

Remembrances for grandchildren will be deducted prior to the final division of the estate.

The debt was drawn and witnessed on January 8, 1932 with Mrs. Gilmour and Andrew Gilmour named as executors.

Provisions are made for sons and grandchildren surviving in the estate upon the death of the widow or any member of the family remembered in the will. Harold Gilmour, a grandson and Betty Gilmour, a granddaughter are to receive $500 and $1,000 respectively, when the trust fund ends.

The sons remembered include William and Andrew Gilmour of Waterbury, Matthew of Hartford and John Gilmour of San Francisco.

It is stipulated in the will that if any of the heirs contest the provisions he shall forfeit his share and it shall be divided among the others. Mr. Gilmour died September 11th. He was a prominent resident of Waterbury for many years.

FOUR GROUPS TO ACT ON LIQUOR

President to Call Quartet Within Week to Study Problems

Washington, Oct. 11.—(UP)—President Roosevelt will call in within a week four groups to coordinate their study of the liquor situation, the White House revealed today.

The justice department, state department, internal revenue bureau and the treasury are the groups which have been making a thorough inquiry into problems that will be met through repeal of the 18th amendment.

It is the desire of the president to begin as early as possible the setting up of machinery necessary to carry out the laws when liquor is again made legal, the White House said.

At the same time the White House said that no serious consideration has been given or would be given to the thought of a special session of congress to handle preliminaries in connection with repeal of the 18th amendment.

In working out an administration policy on liquor control it was said the group in meeting with the president would concentrate first on two phases:

1. The situation regarding repeal in the period up to the meeting of congress.

2. Recommendations for legislative action.

It was made clear at the White House that the president would await the views of the group which has been studying the question before giving any indication as to what might be expected in the way of taxes and the reduction of other taxes.

On certain legal phases of the problem, especially in the six weeks period between repeal and the meeting of congress, he will rely on the opinions of Attorney General Cummings and then count on congress to enact the permanent legislation necessary.

Jury May Secure Bull Case To-day

Brooklyn, N. Y., Youth, Sought Here, on Trial for Life in Greenfield, Mass.

The case of Harry Clay Bull, 22, of Brooklyn, N. Y., on trial for his life in Greenfield, Mass., was expected to reach the jury today. By holding a night session last evening the officials of Franklin County succeeded in advancing the trial to its final stages. Bull was cross examined last evening for over an hour. He claimed that he was dazed from blows and didn't realize what he was doing when he drew his revolver and shot and killed Patrolman Albert C. Jordan.

Bull was wanted in Waterbury on the charge of robbery with violence. He held up and robbed Harold Lane of 195 North Main street, who was in charge of a West Side Hill gasoline station on the night of Bull's visit here. Lane went to Greenfield yesterday in response to a subpoena. He is expected to be used as a state's witness. Lane identified photos of the young man when brought to Waterbury by the Greenfield police. Apparently the state desires to show that the shooting of the officer climaxed a series of robberies.

Notice of the institution of a $3,000 civil action by Coral Gables, Inc. against Margaret Amy Oscar Kraus was filed in the town clerk's office today. The suit is based on the alleged non-payment of a note, the papers state.

STATE OF CONNECTICUT: DISTRICT OF WATERBURY, ss. PROBATE COURT October 9th, 1933. ESTATE OF ELIZABETH BUTT, dec'd. In said District, deceased. The Court of Probate for the District of Waterbury, hath limited and allowed six months from the date hereof for the creditors of said estate to exhibit their claims for settlement. Those who neglect to present their accounts properly attested within said time, will be barred a recovery. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to the CITIZENS & MANUFACTURERS NATIONAL BANK, Executor. THOMAS F. MOORE, Trust Officer.
